

2024 Historic Scavenger Hunt

1. This warehouse was one of many permanent brick warehouses to be built in the Defense Depot Ogden (DDO). These were the first buildings to be approved once the rail links were established in 1941.

(Any one of the 10 buildings still existing in their original form will count.)

Building Name: _____
Building Address: _____

5. This Victorian Eclectic/Queen Anne style home was owned by Robert H Hinckley. Hinckley co-founded the Utah Pacific Airways and started the Civilian Pilot Training Program (CPTP) which trained more than 80,000 pilots, many of which served in World War II.

Building Name: _____
Building Address: _____

2. This three-story, masonry building was one of the few hotels that black Americans could stay due to segregation and the lack of equal housing at the time. During World War II, one of the rooms was used as an office for the black soldiers in the military police.

Building Name: _____
Building Address: _____

6. Built to help with the WWII efforts, this 2 story concrete block warehouse located in the DDO is still used for general military today.

Building Name: _____
Building Address: _____

3. This Victorian Gothic brick building was built as a Church in 1905 and was once the location of post 9 for the American Legion.

Building Name: _____
Building Address: _____

7. This grand art deco building provided defense work training before and during WWII. Funds from the Lanham Act, which were given to communities strained by war industries, went to enlarge the shops at this building.

Building Name: _____
Building Address: _____

4. This public building with its tiled roof, & detailed brick-work, was one of the main hubs in Utah for the arrival & departure of soldiers during WWII.

Building Name: _____
Building Address: _____

8. The front porch of this two and one-half story home was made into living space at the beginning of WWII when the home was converted to apartments to help with the housing shortage of that time.

Building Name: _____
Building Address: _____

9. This WWII Cottage/Minimal Traditional brick home has a gabled roof and a small, rectangular floor plan. It is a perfect representation of the many WWII Cottages built on the block.

Building Name: _____

Building Address: _____

Scavenger Hunt Boundary Map:

This year's scavenger hunt features buildings and houses that directly pertain to Ogden's Contribution to WWII. Each are located within one of the boundaries shown below.

10. This military warehouse has exterior walls that are clad with vertical ribbed steel siding with sections of exposed structural concrete. Located in the DDO it was one of five warehouses and contributed to the DDO's capability of shipping 200 boxcars worth of supplies per day.

Building Name: _____

Building Address: _____

Official Entry Form

Name: _____

Address: _____

City: _____ Zip: _____

Phone Number: _____

Email: _____

RULES

- Brochures are due by 5pm on Wednesday, May 15.
  - They may be returned in person to the Info Desk on the 2nd floor of the Municipal Building, by
  - email to planning@ogdencity.com or, by
  - US mail to: Ogden City Planning Office
2549 Washington Blvd #140
Ogden, UT 84401
- Only one entry per household allowed.
- All entries will be entered in a drawing for prizes.
- Entries having ALL correct responses will be entered in a grand prize drawing.
- Answers and winners will be announced at the Preservation Event held on May 16, at 5pm at Union Station, 2501 Wall Avenue.
- Answers will also be posted on the Ogden City Historic Preservation home page by scanning the QR code.
- All features are visible from the public sidewalks. No authorization is given, or implied, to trespass on private property.
- Entry must have either the building or property name and/or the address.
- Official Entry Form must be filled out with the contestant's name, address, and phone number to qualify for the prize drawings.

Please contact Haylie Hale or Marqae Martinson at 801-629-8920 if you have questions.

For more information, or to view the answer scan the QR code.

2024 Ogden City Annual Historic Scavenger Hunt

This Year's Topic:

Ogden's Contribution to World War II

Ogden UTAH™